

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Students are expected to take pride in their school and to show growing maturity in their respect for themselves, their fellow students, staff and their surroundings. They are also expected to present themselves well at all times. This should be evident in their conduct, appearance and attitude to staff, students and their studies.

Students are expected to:

- act according to the four values of the school, displaying inclusiveness, integrity, selflessness and resilience
- show courtesy to all members of the school and the wider community, including interactions on social media
- treat and use their own property, the school's property and the property of others with care and respect
- abide by the rules applying to specialist areas of the school
- have a responsible attitude to remaining within the school grounds unless they have permission in writing from a parent to leave for specific purposes or if they have special permission from the Principal, Deputy Principal, Head of Secondary Boys or Secondary Girls
- be on time for school and punctual to all lessons and other commitments
- conduct themselves in an appropriate manner so as to bring credit to the school at all times
- follow expectations set out in all other school policies such as the Conditions of Enrolment, ICT Usage Policy, Uniform Policy.

I realize that being part of Calrossy Anglican School calls for me to uphold these expectations and behave in a manner which is appropriate and respectful towards all those around me.
