

Players

Code of Conduct

- Play by the rules
- Never argue with an official. If you disagree, have your captain, coach or manager approach the official during a break or after the competition.
- Control your temper. Verbal abuse of officials and sledging other players deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent are not acceptable or permitted behaviours in any sport.
- Work equally hard for yourself and/ or your team. Your team's performance will benefit so will you.
- Be a good sport. Applaud all good players whether your team or the opposition makes them.
- Avoid the use of violence in any form.
- Treat all participants in your sport, as you would like to be treated. Do not bully or take advantage of another competitor.
- Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit, not just to please parents and coaches.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Wear the uniform correctly, show pride in Calrossy.
- Follow the instructions of team coaches, managers and officials

Parents

Code of Conduct

- Remember that your children participate in sport for their enjoyment not for yours.
- Encourage children to participate, do not force them.
- Focus on the child's performance and efforts rather than winning or losing.
- Encourage children to always play by the rules and to settle disagreements without resorting to hostility or violence.
- Never ridicule or yell at a child for making a mistake or losing a competition.
- Remember that children learn best by example. Appreciate good performances and skilful play by all participants.
- Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from sporting activities.
- Condemn the use of violence in any form, whether it is by spectators, coaches, officials or players.
- Respect official's decisions and teach children to do likewise.
- Show an appreciation for volunteer coaches, officials and administrators. Without them, your child could not participate.

Coaches

Code of Conduct

- Active supervision of students is required at all times.
- Remember that young people participate for pleasure and winning is only part of the fun.
- Never ridicule or yell at a young player for making a mistake or not coming first.
- Be reasonable in your demands on players' time, energy and enthusiasm.
- Operate within the rules and spirit of your sport and teach your players to do the same.
- Ensure that the time players spend with you is a positive experience. All young people are deserving of equal attention and opportunities.
- Avoid overplaying the talented players. "Average" players need and deserve equal time.
- Ensure that equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate to the age and ability of all players.
- Display control, respect and professionalism to all involved with the sport. This includes opponents, coaches, officials, administrators, the media, parents and spectators. Encourage players to do the same.
- Condemn the use of violence in any form, whether it is by spectators, coaches, officials or players.
- Show concern and caution toward sick and injured players. Follow the advice of a physician when determining whether an injured player is ready to recommence training or competition.
- Obtain appropriate qualifications and keep up to date with the latest coaching and rules and the principles of growth and development of young people.
- Any physical contact with a young person should be appropriate to the situation and necessary for the player's skill development.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Encourage young people to develop basic skills in a variety of sports and discourage overspecialisation in one event, sport or playing position.
- Create opportunities to teach appropriate sports behaviour as well as basic skills.
- Make young people aware of the positive benefits of participation in sporting activities.
- Help young people understand the differences between the junior competition they participate in and the professional sport.
- Help young people understand that playing by the rules is their responsibility.
